defendant is not entitled to release under the Bail Reform Act. Defendant is charged with receiving child pornography and possession of child pornography. He was charged with aggravated incest in Allen Parish, Louisiana, on November 13, 2007. He has been unable to make bond in that case (bond is set at $131,000). Defendant waived his right to a detention hearing at this time, as his physical release is not possible. Defendant reserves his right to request a detention hearing in the future.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
